OFFICE OF EXECUTIVE INSPECTOR GENERAL FOR THE AGENCIES OF THE ILLINOIS GOVERNOR

Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Policy Statement

The Office of the Executive Inspector General for the Agencies of the Governor (OEIG) is committed to ensuring diversity, equity, and inclusion in all employment practices and processes. OEIG policies require that all recruitment, hiring, training, and promotional decisions must be free from discrimination based on race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, age, sex, marital status, order of protection status, disability, military status, sexual orientation, pregnancy, reproductive health decisions, or unfavorable discharge from military service, citizenship status, work authorization status, or family responsibilities. The OEIG is an equal opportunity employer dedicated to ensuring compliance. The OEIG strongly enforces the Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Policy and Plan, as well as our discrimination, harassment, and sexual harassment policies and complaint procedures. Acts of discrimination, harassment and unlawful retaliation against employees who invoke their rights under these policies or applicable state and federal employment laws are not tolerated.

Beyond enforcing relevant laws and applicable OEIG policies, the OEIG works proactively to encourage an office culture of diversity, equity, inclusion, and accessibility by creating and maintaining an environment in which individual differences are valued and celebrated. A key component of this goal is the creation and work of the OEIG's Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Accessibility Working Group. The DEIA Working Group is comprised of OEIG employee volunteers from each division who work together to brainstorm, research, and implement steps to make the OEIG a more inclusive and equitable working environment. The DEIA Working Group focuses on engaging in meaningful conversation about issues impacting marginalized groups and identities, training about DEIA issues, providing mentorship and development opportunities, and developing recruitment and hiring processes. The Working Group meets regularly to assess and plan projects and outcomes. For example, the Working Group has spearheaded the review of all position descriptions, job postings, and hiring processes. It has also created and facilitates an internal mentorship program and has provided all employees with training on foundations of diversity, equity, inclusion, and accessibility. This work and commitment by the OEIG helps to ensure an environment in which every employee and candidate feel welcome and valued.

AGENCY PROFILE

MISSION

The Office of Executive Inspector General (OEIG) is an independent executive branch State agency, which ensures accountability in State government, the State public universities, the four regional transit boards, and the regional development authorities. The OEIG investigates allegations of fraud, waste, abuse, and misconduct, and reports its findings and makes related recommendations to affected public agencies and officials. In addition, the OEIG reviews hiring processes for agencies within its jurisdiction. Lastly, the OEIG oversees ethics and harassment and discrimination prevention training for employees, appointees, and officials under its jurisdiction.

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EEO) PROBLEMS AND NEEDS

There are several factors that could adversely impact the OEIG's efforts to address underutilization in its workforce, particularly with respect to Asian professionals. One, despite recruitment efforts targeting organizations such as the Asian American Bar Assoc. of Greater Chicago, South Asian Bar Assoc. of Chicago, and other professional organizations, job postings have not elicited large numbers of applications from people of Asian ethnicity. Two, as an agency exempt from the State Personnel Code and Personnel Rules, our employees are "at-will" and thus job candidates may choose not to accept employment offers from the OEIG because they perceive our positions as being less secure than at other public agencies.

SECTION THREE

PERFORMANCE MEASURE BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Based upon the statistical data at the beginning of FY2026, the OEIG showed underutilization in Region One of two Asian Professionals. Across both Region One and Region Seven, the statistical data shows OEIG achieved parity in the category of people with disabilities.

The OEIG is an Equal Opportunity Employer. The OEIG will ensure that there are no barriers to employment or promotional opportunities and seek recommendations for qualified applicants from professional associations and advocacy groups for minorities and people with disabilities. However, the OEIG will not base any employment action solely on the basis of statistical data.

NUMERIC GOALS

Area to be addressed: Underutilization of two Asians in the Professionals job category in Region 1.

Goal: Eliminate underutilization of 1 Asian Professional in Region 1.

Objective/Output: As vacancies occur, hire/promote to the underutilized category.

Action Plan:

SECTION FOUR

Equal Employment Opportunity and Discrimination Complaint Procedure

It is the policy of the Office of Executive Inspector General (OEIG) to provide equal employment opportunity to all its employees in accordance with state and federal laws, rules, regulations, and executive orders. Furthermore, the OEIG prohibits the exclusion of a person from employment, examination, appointment, training, recruitment, promotion, retention, discipline, or any other personnel action because of race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, age, sex, marital status, order of protection status, disability, military status, sexual orientation, pregnancy, reproductive health decisions, or unfavorable discharge from military service, citizenship status, work authorization status, or family responsibilities.

The OEIG implements EEO and Affirmative Action Plans by identifying, removing, and avoiding any artificial forms of discrimination or preferential treatment. Management will ensure that areas of discretionary judgment will not be used to circumvent the utilization of minority persons, women, and other previously listed categories.

A. Internal Complaint Procedure

- 1. Purpose: The OEIG affirms its commitment to a policy of equal employment opportunity for everyone through the implementation of an EEO complaint investigation procedure to promote the internal resolution of employee complaints of alleged discrimination. The establishment of this EEO complaint investigation procedure shall provide an internal avenue of redress to resolve complaints of alleged discrimination, which will be more efficient than a prolonged, formal investigation.
 - It is the responsibility of the EEO Officer to conduct and advise management in the investigation of complaints, documentation of facts, the presentation of findings, and recommendations to resolve the dispute. The ultimate goal is to ensure that the OEIG is in compliance with EEO laws and takes swift action where appropriate. The use of the EEO complaint investigation procedure, set forth below, does not preclude the rights of an employee to file a charge directly with the Illinois Department of Human Rights (IDHR), the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), or any other appropriate government agency. The filing of any complaint of alleged discrimination may not be used as a basis for future retaliation adversely affecting the rights of any employee.
- 2. Procedures: Complaints shall be made to the EEO Officer. The OEIG encourages the use of the Discrimination Complaint Form (hereinafter the Form) to initiate a complaint of alleged discrimination. A copy of the Form can be found at the end of this section. (Forms are also available online for employees and from the EEO Officer.) The Form should be submitted, along with copies of supporting documentation, to the EEO Officer or Ethics Officer and the employee's supervisor. If an employee's supervisor is involved in the alleged conduct, the conduct shall be reported to the EEO Officer, Ethics Officer, or EIG. to initiate the investigation.
 - a. Scope and Timeliness: All complaints should be communicated as quickly as possible, preferably within 30 working days of the date of alleged discrimination. to the employee's supervisor and the agency EEO Officer or Ethics Officer. If an employee's supervisor is involved in the alleged conduct, the conduct shall be reported to the EEO Officer, Ethics Officer, or EIG. It is not necessary for discrimination, harassment, or sexual harassment to be directed at the person making the complaint for the conduct to be reported. The scope of the investigation will be restricted to the specific allegations communicated to the EEO Officer. All such communications shall remain confidential to the extent permitted to appropriately address the conduct.

- b. Intake Screening: Immediately upon receipt of the complaint, the EEO Officer shall review its contents and inform the employee in writing of the acceptance of the complaint for investigation. The complainant shall be notified if additional information or documentation is needed to support the charge. All complaints, including anonymous complaints, will be accepted and investigated regardless of how the matter comes to the attention of the OEIG. However, because of the serious implications of discrimination, harassment, and sexual harassment charges and the difficulties associated with these investigations and the questions of credibility involved, the claimant's willing cooperation is often a vital component of an effective inquiry and an appropriate outcome. In addition, all other OEIG employees are expected to cooperate with the investigation.
- c. Investigation: Within ten working days of acceptance of the complaint, the EEO Officer shall initiate a thorough investigation of the allegations of discrimination cited in the complaint. In order to document the merits of the charge, the investigation shall entail the verification of information with the immediate supervisors, staff, and witnesses to the alleged discriminatory employment practice. If the investigation is not completed within 45 working days after receipt of the complaint, the EEO Officer must provide the EIG a written explanation of why the investigation is not completed. An additional written explanation must be provided every 45 days thereafter until the investigation is complete. The complainant shall also be updated on the status of the investigation every 45 days until the investigation is complete.
- d. Dismissal of Complaint: If, after an analysis of the merits of the complaint, there is a lack of substantial evidence that discrimination has occurred, the complainant shall be notified in writing within 20 working days of the findings and informed of the right to appeal the findings to the EIG.
- e. Findings and Recommendations: If, however, at the conclusion of the investigation, there exists reasonable cause to believe that discrimination may have occurred, the EEO Officer shall submit a written notice to the EIG with the findings and recommendations to resolve the complaint. The recommendations can include appropriate discipline of any employee who violated the policies of the office, up to and including discharge. Within five working days, conciliation efforts shall be initiated, and the EEO Officer shall participate to seek equitable resolution of the complaint.
- f. Conciliation Efforts: The EEO Officer shall conduct and coordinate efforts to resolve the complaint by conferring with the parties. A conciliation conference may be convened, which all parties may attend in person or by representative, to propose, discuss, and agree to a resolution of the complaint. If the complaint cannot be satisfactorily resolved at this level within five working days, the EEO Officer shall document the efforts made to resolve the complaint and shall provide a written explanation of the reason why the complaint was not able to be resolved. The findings, conciliation efforts, and proposed resolution shall be forwarded to the EIG for final review, approval, or other determination. The EIG shall make known to the EEO Officer the official position of the OEIG within five working days of receipt of the EEO Officer's written report.

B. External Complaints

Each employee also has the right to file a formal charge with the IDHR within two (2) years of the alleged violation and/or with the EEOC within 300 days of the alleged violation. Internal complaints before the OEIG and formal charges before the IDHR or EEOC or any other appropriate government agency may be pursued independently.

OFFICE OF EXECUTIVE INSPECTOR GENERAL NUMERIC GOAL FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

Based upon the statistical data at the beginning of FY2026, the OEIG showed to have achieved parity in the category of people with disabilities.

OFFICE OF EXECUTIVE INSPECTOR GENERAL REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION POLICY

In compliance with the U.S. Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, as amended by the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA) of 2008, and the Illinois Human Rights Act, it is the policy of Office of Executive Inspector General for Agencies of the Illinois Governor to reasonably accommodate the known physical or mental conditions of otherwise qualified applicants and employees with disabilities. The Office of Executive Inspector General for Agencies of the Illinois Governor recognizes the right of a qualified applicant or employee with a disability to request a reasonable accommodation to ensure equal opportunity in the application process; to enable him or her to perform essential functions of a job; and/or to enable him or her to enjoy equal benefits and privileges of employment.

It is the responsibility of the Office of Executive Inspector General for Agencies of the Illinois Governor to provide a reasonable accommodation to qualified applicants and employees with disabilities, when such reasonable accommodation does not pose an undue hardship to the operation of the agency's business.

The agency Equal Employment Opportunity Officer and/or the Americans with Disabilities Act Coordinator can provide further information about the agency's policy in this area.

Accommodation Request Procedures for Employees

The following procedures should be followed in processing reasonable accommodation requests from employees. The agency EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator can provide guidance on the accommodation process.

- 1. The employee shall submit a completed reasonable accommodation request form to the agency EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator. The employee should retain a copy of this information in his or her files.
- 2. Once received, the EEO/AA Officer shall review the request form for completeness and shall determine whether medical documentation is needed to either establish the presence of a disability or determine an appropriate accommodation. If documentation is needed, the agency should narrowly tailor its request to the issues of whether the employee has a disability under the law and how he or she can be accommodated. The employee should be asked to complete a medical release form (also narrowly tailored) if the agency has additional questions upon review of the medical documentation. When necessary, the employee should be asked to provide documentation to address these issues.
- 3. The EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator shall convene a meeting of the Reasonable Accommodation Committee (RAC) comprised of the General Counsel, Human Resources Manager (if a different employee than the EEO/AA Officer), and the employee's supervising manager within ten (10) working days of receipt of the accommodation request. The RAC shall review the accommodation request. Once the Committee's review is complete, the Committee's recommendation shall be submitted to the Executive Inspector General (EIG) within five (5) working days of the Committee's review for the EIG's approval or denial.
- 4. The EIG shall review the RAC's recommendation and shall render a decision of denial or approval within five (5) working days of receipt from the RAC.
- 5. Provided that appropriate documentation has been submitted, the EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator shall inform the employee in writing of the agency's decision to grant or deny the request within thirty (30) working days of receipt of the completed request form and any necessary medical documentation. A copy of the response will also be sent to the employee's supervising manager.
- 6. If the EIG approves the accommodation request, the agency shall take appropriate action to comply with the accommodation request. Approved accommodation requests shall be implemented as soon as possible. Please note that the agency may offer alternative suggestions providing an equally effective accommodation to redress the workplace barrier in question.

- 7. Reconsideration: If an employee wishes to ask the EIG to reconsider a decision on a reasonable accommodation request, a written request shall be addressed to the EIG within ten (10) working days of notification of the decision. The reconsideration request shall include the reasons that a reconsideration is being requested and, if appropriate, alternative suggestions for reasonable accommodation.

 After a complete review of the matter, a decision shall be made, and the employee shall be notified. The EIG's decision on this recommendation shall constitute the final internal action by the OEIG on the accommodation request.
- 8. An employee who has been denied accommodation has the right to file a complaint at the state level with the Illinois Department of Human Rights within two (2) years of the denial of the request. An employee may also have the right to file a complaint with the U. S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) within 300 days or any other appropriate government agency pursuant to its time frame.
- The EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator shall document any action taken on a reasonable accommodation request where indicated on the request form and shall retain completed accommodation request forms one year following final action in the matter.

Office of Executive Inspector General Reasonable Accommodation Request for Employees

Pursuant to the requirements of state and federal laws, a qualified individual with a disability has the right to request reasonable accommodation in conjunction with his or her employment. Reasonable accommodation means a modification to application procedure, access to the work site, and adjustment to the work process or work schedule that would enable a person with a disability to perform a particular job. Employers are not required to provide accommodations that would impose undue hardship on the operations of their programs. The procedures for accommodation request appear on the back of this form. Completed accommodation request forms should be submitted to the immediate supervisor, with a copy to the agency's EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator. The agency EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator can respond to questions about the accommodation process.

Accommodation Request Procedures for Applicants

Qualified applicants and employees with disabilities have the right to request reasonable accommodation under the law. Applicants may request accommodation for any stage of the application process, including the employment application, examination procedure or interviewing process.

Once an individual with a disability has been hired, he or she has the right to request accommodation to the work site, work schedule, or work process that would enable him or her to perform the job in question. Procedures for applicants to follow in making an accommodation request are listed below. The EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator can provide additional information about the accommodation process within the Office of Executive Inspector General.

Procedures:

- 1. Applicants may request accommodations to the application process orally or in writing (either through correspondence or the use of the accommodation request form for applicants). If the request is made orally or through written correspondence, the agency EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator will complete accommodation request forms in the matter for purposes of processing and documenting the request.
- 2. Applicants shall submit accommodation requests to the Human Resources Manager. The Human Resources Manager (if different) should provide the form to the EEO/AA Officer, the ADA Coordinator, and the General Counsel. In cases where the EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator completes the form for the applicant with a disability, the EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator shall submit completed forms to the Human Resources Manager and retain the original for him or herself.
- 3. A response to the request will be provided to the applicant within five days following receipt of the request by the Human Resources Manager.
- 4. If it is within the bounds of the authority of the Human Resources Manager to grant the request and he or she believes it to be reasonable, the accommodation will be provided. Information regarding the type of accommodation provided will be sent to the EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator (if different).
- 5. If another official within the agency must be consulted in order for the accommodation to be provided, he or she will determine whether the agency will grant the request.
- 6. If the agency denies the request, the applicant has the right to file an internal complaint with the EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator and/or external complaint with the Illinois Department of Human Rights within two (2) years of the denial. An applicant may also have the right to file a complaint with the U. S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) within 300 days or any other appropriate government agency pursuant to its time frame.

Affirmative Action for Employing People with Disabilities

I. Recruitment Procedure:

The Office of Executive Inspector General (OEIG) will attempt to attract applicants with disabilities as part of its total recruitment activities.

II. Physical Barriers:

The OEIG is not aware of any physical barriers at either the Chicago or Springfield offices. Both are fully serviced by elevators.

III. Application Process Procedures:

- A. A review of employment criteria will be conducted to assure there is no disparate impact upon employing people with disabilities.
- B. As new positions and employment criteria are established to screen applicants for these positions, physical and mental standards shall be reviewed for disparate impact before they are put into place. No standard that tends to screen out a group of people with disabilities will be used unless it is a bona-fide occupational qualification.

IV. Employment Criteria:

The OEIG will review its employment criteria and identify the essential duties of each position. The reason for joining these two activities is that applicants with disabilities should not be evaluated for employment according to their ability to perform non-essential job duties.

Therefore, the employment criteria connected to non-essential job duties should be waived when these duties can be reassigned to accommodate an employee with disabilities.

V. Pre-Employment Inquiries:

The agency will not pose any pre-employment inquiry regarding a disability. Under the Illinois Department of Human Rights/Human Rights Commission's Interpretive Rules on Disability Discrimination in Employment, no question about an applicant's disability should be posed by an agency, unless the question is jobrelated. Personnel conducting interviews will be informed of the agency's standards on pre-employment inquiries.

VI. Employment Training:

Tests that screen out any group of people with disabilities will not be used, unless the test is job-related and there is no alternative test that could be used that does not have an adverse impact. People with disabilities required to submit to employment testing will be accommodated in accordance with the ADA.

VII. Physical Accessibility for Employment:

- A. The OEIG will provide reasonable accommodation to both applicants and employees.
- B. The OEIG will identify and modify various portions of its facilities to accommodate the needs of employees, once their disabilities have been identified and fiscal considerations do not present an "undue hardship." All areas of the OEIG's facilities, such as restrooms, water fountains, and other portions of the facilities that are available to employees, will be made accessible.

VIII. Evacuation Needs of Employees with Disabilities:

Evacuation of employees with disabilities in the event of an emergency will be a priority. Provisions will be made to directly notify employees with hearing impairment, as needed. Assistance will be provided to employees with disabilities who have identified such a need. This may entail assigning one or more employees to help an employee with disabilities during an emergency.

IX. ADA Coordinator:

The ADA Coordinator for the OEIG is:

Gina M. Rosas, Human Resources Manager 69 W. Washington, Suite 3400 Chicago, Illinois 60602 312-814-6667 (Office) 312-814-3860 (Fax) TTY/TDD (888) 261-2734

SECTION SIX

OFFICE OF EXECUTIVE INSPECTOR GENERAL APPLICABLE FEDERAL EEO LAWS

CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964, as amended

Title VI prohibits discrimination on grounds of race, color, or national origin in federally assisted programs.

Title VII prohibits discrimination on the grounds of race, color, religion, sex or national origin by employers or unions with 15 or more employees. The designation employer includes the government of the United States, corporations wholly owned by the United States, and state or political subdivisions thereof.

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY ACT OF 1972

This is an amendment to the Civil Rights Act of 1964, which adds sex and religion to the Title VII portion and extends Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) to state, local and municipal organizations, all employment agencies (private and public) and to labor organizations. This Act empowers EEOC to bring civil action against any organization, which is alleged to be practicing discrimination. The Act also gives the right to an individual to take a complaint directly to a court of law.

PREGNANCY DISCRIMINATION ACT

This law amended Title VII to make it illegal to discriminate against a woman because of pregnancy, childbirth, or a medical condition related to pregnancy or childbirth. The law also makes it illegal to retaliate against a person because the person complained about discrimination, filed a charge of discrimination, or participated in an employment discrimination investigation or lawsuit.

CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1991

The Civil Rights Act of 1991 expands the protections afforded individuals under the Civil Rights Act of 1964. It provides for damages for intentional discrimination and unlawful harassment in the workplace and codifies the concepts of "business necessity" and "job related" as enunciated in various Supreme Court decisions. Additionally, it confirms statutory authority and provides guidelines for disparate impact suits under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and in response to recent Supreme Court decisions, expands the scope of relevant civil rights statutes.

AGE DISCRIMINATION IN EMPLOYMENT ACT OF 1967

This Act prohibits arbitrary discrimination against persons 40 years of age or older.

REHABILITATION ACT OF 1973

This Act sets the standards for promoting, expanding, and assisting in employment opportunities for people with disabilities in all programs or activities receiving Federal financial assistance. Sections 503 and 504 provide for the prohibition of discrimination against qualified people with disabilities. The Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP), U. S. Department of Labor, enforces section 503. Section 504 is enforced by the agency providing the federal funds in question.

EQUAL PAY ACT OF 1963

This Act provides that an employer may not discriminate on the basis of sex by paying employees different wages for doing equal work on jobs requiring equal skill, effort, and responsibility, and which are performed under similar working conditions in the same establishment. The U. S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) enforces this Act.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT OF 1990, AS AMENDED BY THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES AMENDENTS ACT OF 2008

Congress enacted the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 ("the ADA") to eliminate discrimination against individuals with disabilities in the areas of employment, public accommodations, education, transportation, communication, recreation, institutionalization, health services, voting, and access to public service. Title I of the ADA prohibits discrimination in employment against individuals with disabilities and establishes the standards governing an employer's affirmative duty to accommodate an individual with a disability. Title II of the ADA prohibits discrimination against individuals with disabilities by state and local governments. The ADA Amendments Act of 2008 broadens the coverage of "disability" and thereby brings more individuals under the protection of the law. EEOC issued regulations under this Act.

FAMILY MEDICAL LEAVE ACT of 1993, as amended

This act requires employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid job-protected leave to "eligible" employees for certain family and medical reasons. Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least one year, and for 1,250 hours during the year preceding the start of the leave, and be employed at a worksite where the employer employs at least 50 employees within a 75-mile radius. The U. S. Department of Labor's Wage and Hour Division is authorized to investigate and resolve complaints of violations.

Unpaid leave must be granted for any of the following reasons:

- To care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- To care for the employee's spouse, son or daughter, or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
- For a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee's job.

Section 585(a) of the National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) amended the FMLA to provide eligible employees working for covered employers two important leave rights related to military service:

- Qualifying Reason for Leave. Eligible employees are entitled to up to 12 weeks of leave because of "any qualifying exigency" arising out of the fact that the spouse, son, daughter, or parent of the employee is on active duty, or has been notified of an impending call to active duty status, in support of a contingency operation.
- Leave Entitlement. An eligible employee who is the spouse, son, daughter, parent, or next of kin of a covered service member who is recovering from a serious illness or injury sustained in the line of duty on active duty is entitled to up to 26 weeks of leave in a single 12-month period to care for the service member. This military caregiver leave is available during "a single 12-month period" during which an eligible employee is entitled to a combined total of 26 weeks of all types of FMLA leave.

UNIFORMED SERVICES EMPLOYMENT AND REEMPLOYMENT RIGHTS ACT (USERRA)

USERRA protects the job rights of individuals who voluntarily or involuntarily leave employment positions to undertake military service. USERRA also prohibits employers from discriminating against past and present members of the uniformed services, and applicants to the uniformed services. The U. S. Department of Labor, Veterans Employment and Training Service (VETS) is authorized to investigate and resolve complaints of USERRA violations.

GENETIC INFORMATION NONDISCRIMINATION ACT OF 2008

This law makes it illegal to discriminate against employees or applicants because of genetic information. Genetic information includes information about an individual's genetic tests and the genetic tests of an individual's family members, as well as information about any disease, disorder, or condition of an individual's family members (i.e. an individual's family medical history). The law also makes it illegal to retaliate against a person because the person complained about discrimination, filed a charge of discrimination, or participated in an employment discrimination investigation or lawsuit.

THE PREGNANT WORKERS FAIRNESS ACT OF 2022 (PWFA)

Law requires employers to provide reasonable accommodations to qualified employees who are affected by pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions, if the reasonable accommodations would not cause an undue hardship for the employer. Further, it is unlawful for an employer to require the employee to accept a certain accommodation or take a leave, if another reasonable accommodation can be provided. Under this law, an employer cannot retaliate against an employee for requesting or using a reasonable accommodation, participating in an EEO proceeding (for example, a discrimination investigation or lawsuit), or reasonably opposing discrimination or other unlawful practice under this Act.
