ADMINISTRATIVE RIGHTS– STATE EMPLOYEES

NAME _____ DEPT _____ TITLE _____

DATE _____ TIME _____ CASE NUMBER _____

I understand that I am here today to be interviewed by _____ and _____ from the Office of Executive Inspector General for the Agencies of the Illinois Governor.

I have been informed that this is an administrative investigatory interview and I understand that this investigatory interview is part of an official administrative inquiry, and that pursuant to the State Officials and Employees Ethics Act, 5 ILCS 430/20-70, I am obligated to cooperate.

I further understand that:

- Refusal to cooperate in this investigatory interview could subject me to disciplinary action, up to and including discharge.
- As part of my duty to cooperate, the OEIG is requesting that I keep any information learned as part of this interview confidential.
- My duty to cooperate and the OEIG's request to keep any information learned as part of this investigation confidential still requires me to inform any other investigative or auditing authority, e.g., the Illinois Auditor General, about any knowledge or information I may have regarding fraud, abuse or other misconduct.
- Any false, inaccurate, or deliberately incomplete statements by me, or my refusal to answer, could result in disciplinary action up to and including discharge.
- Any statement made by me in the course of this interview could be used as the basis for disciplinary action up to and including discharge.
- Statements made by me during the course of this administrative interview, and the fruits thereof, CANNOT be used against me in a subsequent criminal proceeding.
- I may have a union representative, attorney, or coworker uninvolved in the investigation present with me at this investigatory interview.

I also understand that I have the right to have this interview audio-recorded and the right to decline to have it recorded. Withholding consent to audio-record this interview does not amount to non-cooperation. By affixing my signature I am acknowledging that this form was presented to me and I have had a full opportunity to read it and that I understand my administrative rights.
